The image is a photograph of a school building. On the left, a brick wall is visible with the words 'HOBART HIGH' written vertically in white. To the right of the brick wall is a two-story building with large windows. The upper story has a row of windows with white coverings, while the lower story has larger, darker windows. The building is set against a blue sky with some clouds. In the foreground, there is a grassy lawn. The overall tone is that of a vintage yearbook cover.

There Is Beauty In The Usual-----

It's All In The Point Of View

A trip to Paris or Lisbon may not be available to all, nor would a tour of the continent be a reality to the majority. But just taking an intense look into Hobart High School during 1960-1961 will help develop a new perspective and encourage you, its inhabitants, to view the usual sights about you with interest—the first glimpse of H. H. S. as you walk east down the sidewalk on 8th street—the curved stairway to the library—Mr. Moody's deep enthusiasm at one of our convocations.

We begin to see new angles, and points of interest. We begin to enjoy and notice our town — school — and students, come alive with interest — knowing, THERE IS BEAUTY IN THE USUAL — IT'S ALL IN THE POINT OF VIEW.

Between dances everyone takes time out for a coke and the latest news. From the student lounge you are able to view many dancers and their variations.

Before school, between classes, at lunch, and after school crowded stairs and crowded halls create an atmosphere of friendly confusion.

Pencils, pens, paper, ink. The list could go on indefinitely. These are just a few of the items Hobart students may purchase at the school store. Jackie Wright and Barb Louis are purchasing paper for their next class.

Many students await service, as the lunch line slowly winds its way from the lobby through the first floor corridor to the cafeteria.

The old game of concentration is practiced daily by the would-be Aristotles of H.H.S. At noontime however, the library is found void of students seeking knowledge beyond that of their textbook.

A hearty supporter of H.H.S. is the school bus. It may be compared to the mailman—rain, snow, sleet, or hail the students must get through—to school.

Many a student personality is represented in the senior parking lot. These cars range from the black '49 Ford in the upper right hand corner to the '59 Chevy in the lower left hand corner. For the more frivolous there is Dick Boyds' red and white convertible. Those with a compact taste might choose Veronica Levan's Austin Healey.

UP AND COMING FASHIONS

Jim Blackburn, in continental suit and shirt with stick pin collar, is admiring Judie who is attired in a black knit sheath. Vicki Small is wearing a purple skirt and sweater and white blazer. Ed is wearing a navy blue blazer, gray continental slacks, white shirt, and blue jersey.

Taking a few moments relaxation between tennis matches are Peg Tucker and Keith Anderson. Peg's outfit consists of a red, white, and blue jersey, and white gym shoes. Keith has on his sporty white clam diggers and three quarter length red, white, and blue jersey.

Linda Howell, Dave Robinson, Connie Peacock, and Trent McKinney as they go to their classes. Linda is wearing the new colors this year, grape and gray. A continental shirt is the newest fad in boy's wear. Connie, in her blue bulky knit and adler socks, walks with Trent, who shows that the vest is still popular.

-----The Student - Teacher

Sincere interest and guidance have helped the students achieve a solid foundation for scholarship, citizen, and leadership.
The ideals and social maturity of the students is a reflection of this high school and its faculty. View the the following with a deeply interested and questioning mind

Point Of View

School Board — standing, left to right — Mr. Dudley, Mr. Hamilton, Mr. Elliot, Mr. Kerr; sitting — Mr. Harrigan, and Mrs. Briggs.

ADMINISTRATION

MR. ARLEY KERR
 Superintendent of Schools
 B.S., Ball State; M.A., I.U.

MR. EUGENE WISE
 Director of Pupil Personnel
 B.S., M.A., Ball State

"I chose my profession because it requires for success that one keep intellectually alive. It is constantly challenging and, therefore, constantly stimulating. How many persons find such good fortune in their profession?"

Principal
Mr. Moody

"Because I felt I was teaching subject matter rather than boys and girls, I returned to college to take guidance as a dean of girls and as assistant principal."

Vice-Principal
Miss Thompson

DEAN OF MEN

"Because I believe in 'The will to win', competition, desire, drive, and determination, I chose to become a football coach. You have to possess these qualities to get ahead no matter where you are — on the gridiron, the classroom, in the business world, or the battlefield. Football teaches boys to become men and I want my men to be gentlemen."

Mr. Deal

DEAN OF WOMEN

"Young people need to understand the duty of carrying on the tradition of a free democracy, of preserving our ideals, and of remedying our faults. I feel that I can best do my share of the world's work in this field."

Mrs. Cox

VOCATIONAL GUIDANCE

"I chose to coach sports activities because I liked to work with boys and enjoyed opportunities afforded me to share several coaching experiences with these young men. Now I believe guidance work presents untold possibilities for knowing and helping young people as I can."

Mr. Bailey

CUSTODIAN

Charles Kaiser

PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE STAFF

Mrs. Sillery, seated, Mrs. Bryson, standing.

CAFETERIA

Rosa Dykhuis, Emma Schrock, and Lois Stewart.

"I am teaching in the field of English because I realize that skill in the use of the mother tongue is vital to everyone."

Miss Anderson

"It is the destructive effect of a misguided ambition," replies Miss Anderson to Bernie Baum and Virginia Newman.

LANGUAGE ARTS

"Students, in this poem we have an example of prose," explains Mrs. Russell Deal as her sophomore literature students Becky Nelson, Judy Peterson, and Chuck Hamilton listen intently."

"My choice of teaching is not important to me as the fact that I chose teaching as a profession. It is nice to know that as a teacher you have had a small part in the lives of so many."

Mrs. Deal

"If it is important to impart truth, justice, ideals and see to it that people are well informed, how more important is it that persons are trained to do this?"

Mr. Heintzleman

"This article will have to be rewritten if our deadline is to be met," instructs Mr. Heintzleman to his journalism students Gary Owen, Margaret Potter, and Judy Hansen. Meanwhile Chuck Wilson and Mike Newman seem actively engaged in a heated discussion on the operation of the camera Mike holds.

"If one loves drama, good literature, and the beauty of language, one might become a teacher. Add to these loves the ability of being a ham, one will become a teacher of speech and English."

Mrs. Karr

"Fourscore and seven years ago," begins Virginia Strudas at the podium in speech class as Mrs. Karr looks on interestingly and prepares to give her comments.

HELPFUL HINTS, MRS. KOCH??

Looking for something interesting? Try reading. Here Mrs. Doris Koch points out some of the interesting details of the story to Dennis Rittenmeyer.

"I chose English because I felt I should have a small part in the proper guidance of young people in the most expressive of the language arts: English."

Mrs. Koch

ENGLISH

These people seem to enjoy their Senior English grammar class as a sentence is being broken down and described.

Mrs. Alt points out some of the main roads established after the War of 1812. Helping her are Joe Grdgon and Peggy Sykes.

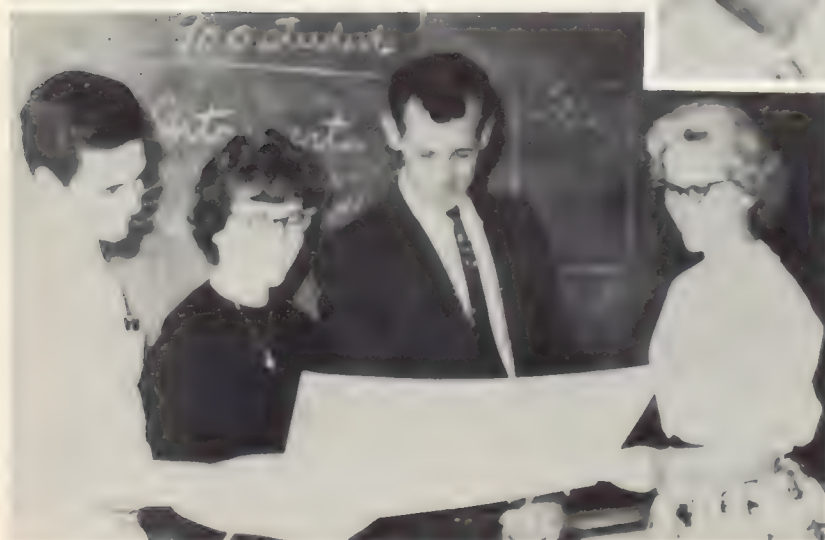

"Since early life I have had a pointed interest in teaching boys and girls to become mature men and women. This was my reason for choosing to teach U.S. History and English."

Mrs. Alt

SOCIAL STUDIES

"I love teaching."

Mr. Davis

Ray Rodriguez, Bonnie Black, and Pat Harwood study personality charts made by Mr. Davis's psychology classes. Psychology students also make and analyze ink blots to determine their personality traits.

Mr. Edquist

A part of every social studies class is to talk about current world affairs. Mr. Edquist explains this map in his economics class to John Konici, Tim Krull, and Jane Wesley.

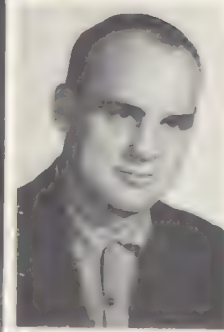

SOCIAL

Mr. Rhode points out an important European country of the middle ages to Ruth Stephens, Bill Enslen, and Bob Greulich.

"An early interest in history led to my choosing Social Studies as a major field of interest in teaching, interest in reading and literary history, was my reason for choosing English as a minor."

Mr. Rhode

Mr. Trammel

Mr. Trammel goes into detail as he shows his government classes the voting machine. He explains it to Bob Popaditch, Jan Evanoff, and Vicki Small.

STUDIES

As we quote Mr. Webster: "Sociology is the science of the origin and evolution of society." These students show an engrossed interest in the photographer as they pose for this picture.

CHEMISTRY

STAND CLEAR!

It looks like Garry Walker is doing a bang-up job (we hope not) from the expression on Mr. Hamman's face.

"I prefer to teach chemistry because the hypothesis, theories, and laws of chemistry offer an academic as well as a practical challenge to a teacher of this rather complex subject."

Mr. Hamman

SCIENCE

"Make sure it's well focused," says Mrs. Reed to Frank Banaski. Edra Hite and Ron Day watch Frank as he prepares an experiment in biology.

BIOLOGY

"Biology became my chosen field of teaching because I wished to open to my students part of the amazing world of science."

Mrs. Reed

Miss Stewart

HOLD STILL

As Dave Beres, Sheryl Nelson, Don Bauman, and Dennis Rittenmeyer look on, Miss Stewart is describing the parts of the grasshopper as she extracts them one at a time.

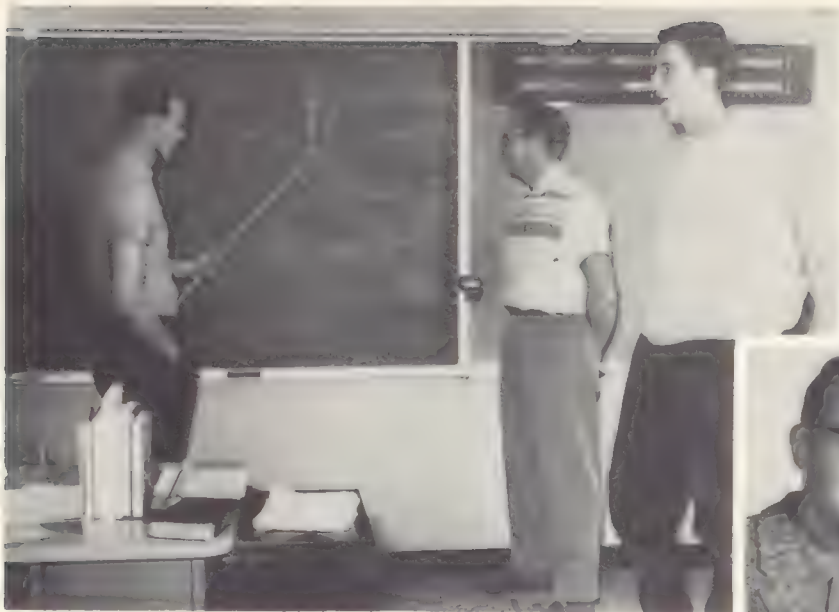

"I have always enjoyed working mathematical problems. I have found that physics gives me an excellent field for the practical use of mathematics."

Mr. Senderak

PHYSICS

"Careful," says Beth Kursch. Mr. Senderak examines this experiment as Ron Will and Alston Lundgren proceed in balancing these scales.

TRIGONOMETRY

"I have had an interest in mathematics for as long as I can remember."

Mr. Fackler

Bob Popaditch explains his problem as Dave Beres looks on
Mr. Fackler gives his approval.

MATHEMATICS

It seems by the look of things that Jim High has just made a discovery that will revolutionize the world of mathematics. And it all happened in Mr. Fackler's diagonal trig. class.

ALGEBRA

Mike Jeffries is showing Joe Vorgo the meaning of positive and negative values on the blackboard as the rest of the algebra class looks on.

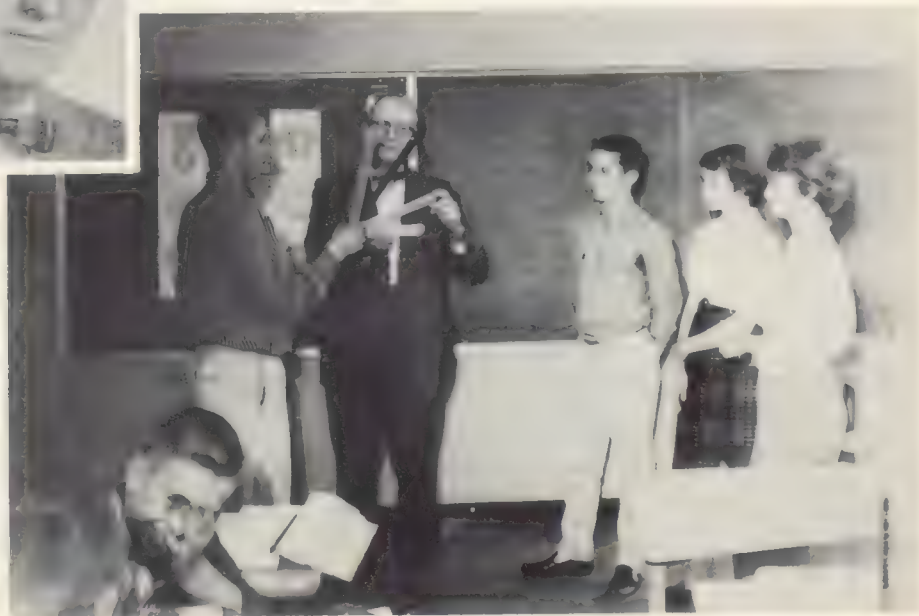

FUNDAMENTALS

"I chose mathematics, because both the learning and teaching of this subject is a real challenge."

Mr. Reed

GEOMETRY

"For one thing, I thoroughly enjoy working in the field of printing. The learning situation here also offers an excellent opportunity for school and community service. What better reason to choose this field except that here I feel better qualified."

Mr. Biller

"We don't always get a chance to sit down," explains Mr. Biller for his print shop students Chuck Wilson and Phil Gerard.

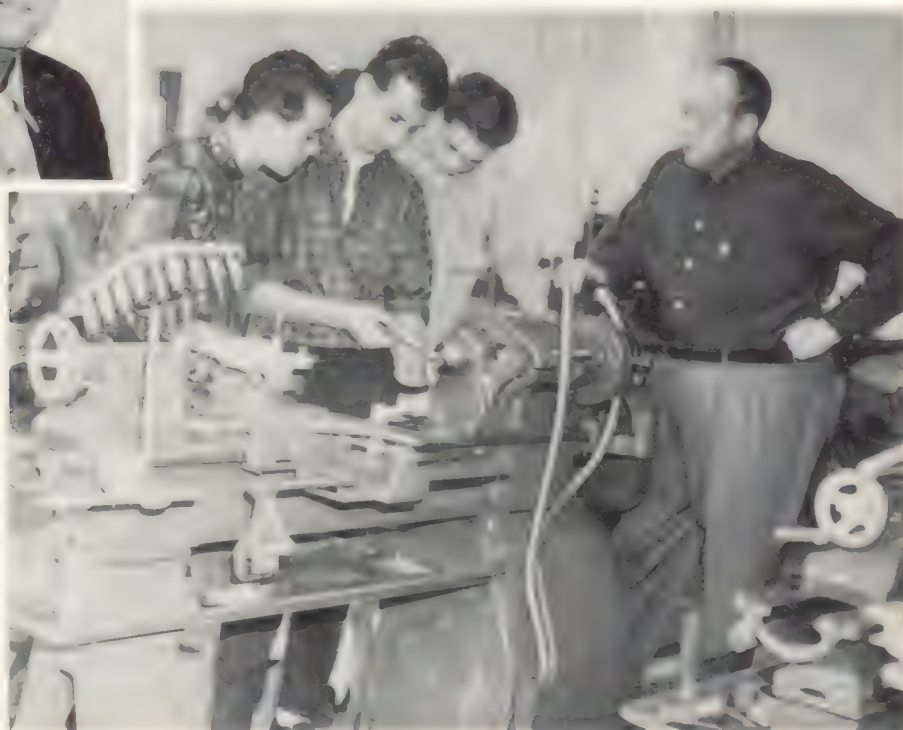

VOCATIONAL

When Mr. Collins was asked by the Yearbook staff to state his reason for choosing his particular field of teaching he candidly replied, "I don't know!"

Mr. Collins

Over the din of machines Mr. Collins can be heard giving instructions to the boys in machine shop. Here he explains the wood lay to Mike Harrahill, Steve Colbertson, and Bob Haas.

Mr. Farlow

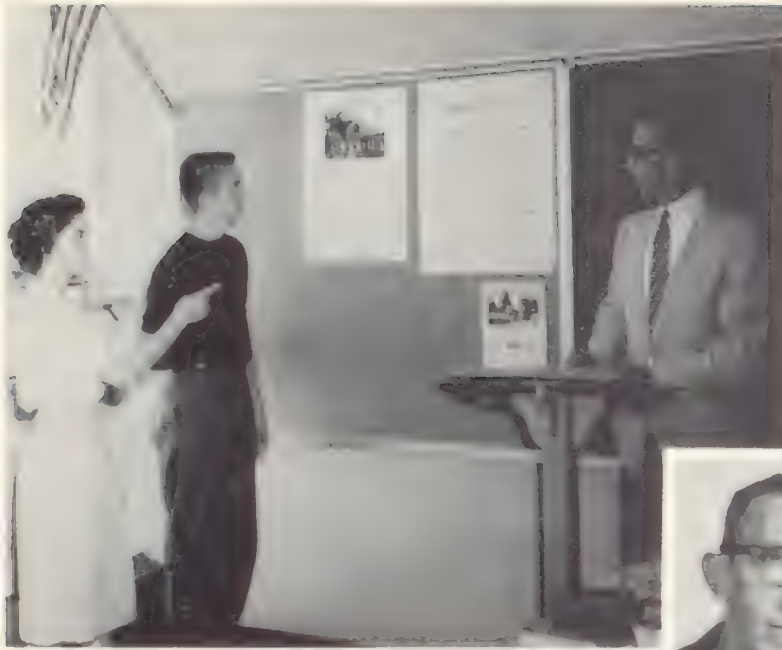

Mr. Farlow looks on as Terry Mauer works on his project for mechanical drawing class. Much of their work is shown in the display case in the north wing.

SHOP

Mr. Smetzer, head of the vocational department, has his own office in which he guides his boys along.

LATIN

"Mr. Black, would you repeat that please?" asks Michele Livovich and Armond DeLeuere as Mr. Black explains the fundamental principals of Latin.

Mr. Black

GERMAN

"I teach German because of the need in our community. I teach fine arts because very early I came to realize the human need for a surrounding of beauty. I discovered that our whole life is affected by art. I decided to do my part in educating the consumer as well as the artist responsible for the creation."

Mrs. Cicak

Pat Glynn tries to conjugate the verb "to go" on the board as Mrs. Cicak shows her an example in their German textbook. Sue Brandenburg and John Cicak look on.

SPANISH

"I enjoyed Spanish so much in my high school days that I felt I wanted to continue my connection with it by helping others to gain fluency in it."

Mr. Neff

"Quin sabe donde esta Brazil?" Understanding Mr. Neff's question in Spanish, Diana Glad points out Brazil on a map of South America as Joe Brink looks on.

LIBRARY

"I chose librarianship after I had taught four years. I prefer it to teaching the subjects I attempted because I like to devote my time exclusively to working with books and students interested in reading, all adolescents in reading as a medium of recreation, information, and growth."

Mrs. Bailey

Betty Carlisle is helping Mrs. Bailey look up material in reference book to help Beth Zimmerman and Judy Swanson with their term paper.

TYPING

Miss Hopp seems to be chastening Barbara Kile as she corrects her typing procedures. Seemingly engrossed in their work are Kathy Ferri and Judy Swanson.

"I chose the field of business, because I had trained to be a secretary, stenographer or a bookkeeper with a two-year business course at a state accredited college. After W. W. II, I decided to complete my degree. Most of the credit hours I had earned would apply on a business major and since all my practical experience had been in this field, I took business education."

Miss Hopp

SHORTHAND

Mrs. Harder tells her shorthand class to take out their notebooks and start taking dictation.

"I chose Business Education because I am interested in both business and education. I chose to teach because I feel I can do more for education than for business."

Mrs. Harder

BOOKKEEPING

"I had always wanted to teach Social Studies, but needed some other field so I picked Business Education, because the two fit together nicely."

Mr. McGuire

Mr. McGuire helps Marcia Banister work some problems on the board of bookkeeping class.

Sharon Saunders watches with interest as Mr. Hunt explains some steps in solving general business problems to Bonnie Niksch.

GENERAL BUSINESS

"I graduated from Indiana University's Business School. After a year of office work, I decided to become a teacher. I picked my fields because of interest."

Mr. Hunt

OFFICE PRACTICE

"I started my teaching career in the fields of English and Social Studies. Business had always been of special interest to me, but I lacked the necessary credits to teach it. As a result, I finished the two courses necessary for a license and continued full-time in this department."

Miss Todd

Miss Todd supervises as Vicki Wieczorek works on the mimeograph and Connie Peacock runs the mimeograph machine in their office practice class.

Jen Eastwood and Vicki Kozyra work on their projects while Mrs. Hevel shows Barb Carnell where to cut.

"I selected home economics as my field because I feel all girls are potential home-makers and therefore need some training in this area. This is especially true since home economics today, is more than learning to cook and sew."

HOME ECONOMICS

Paula Andrew, Eileen Kaiser, and Carol Fitzgerald are busily putting their cake in the oven while Elaine Adams, Pam Fritz, Kay Swim, and Kathy Ferri take theirs out.

ARTS

Benny Jones gives an interesting report on color scheme in his art class. Seated at the tables are Pat Price, Sandy Smith and Fred LaLonde.

DRIVER EDUCATION

You just can't jump in and drive. There's a lot you have to know about the car first. Mr. Deal is telling Harvel Ayers how to change a tire. Helping him are Pat Coleman and Melissa DeLeurere.

Mr. Deal

"After a successful scholastic and athletic career at Gary Horace Mann high school, my coach and principal encouraged me to attend college and take up teaching and athletic coaching. They also aided in obtaining a scholarship for me at Wittenberg University."

Mr. Kurth

"Batter up." Umpire Coach Kurth takes his third hour gym class outside on this bright sunny day to play softball. The batter and catcher takes their positions.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"Hold it girls", Miss Reisinger yells as she acts as spotter for this pyramid consisting of Sue Darling, Betty Hartman and Donna Glad.

"Physical education has become a burning candle within me and teaching is the best way I know of keeping the candle aflame. I hope to be able to help others to lead happy and healthful lives and I believe teaching physical education and providing recreation are the best ways for me to do it."

Miss Reisinger

BAND

"I turned to teaching as the only real means of a satisfactory and stable career in music. The working with young people, the opportunity of serving the community in which I live are all real and tangible benefits of a career in teaching profession."

Mr. Webb

Mr. Webb instructs Sharon Schubick and Carol Sherrard in the correct filing procedures of band music.

MUSIC

ACAPPELLA

"Take the first bar of the chorus" says Mr. Benson to accompanist Marilyn Mailaender. Jim Snodgrass, Lynda Harter, and Bob Graham get ready to take their pitch.

--The Active Persons

Hobart's 23 varied organizations, which are increasing each year in value and membership provides each and every student with a richer outlook on school life. While some develop leadership and personality, others give preliminary preparation for future careers. Many perform services which will benefit our school and town. And yes, there are those which provide an outlet for special talents. In the following pages view these organizations with a keen mind.

There Is Beauty In The Usual—It's All In The Point Of View. This is the theme chosen by the editors of this year's yearbook. Looking in on a routine third hour yearbook class we see Kathy Nagy, busily trying to decide what will be going in the various sections. Next we discover the editors and photographers organizing their sections, and working on additional ideas which will be presented to Kathy for approval. Members of the yearbook staff work hard and long during the year to bring this Memories addition to you. When signature party time comes around again, however, the staff receives its reward when students show their appreciation for their book.

Connie Peacock, Business Manager, files the unpaid bills.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Ad. Manager Mitch Blundin shows Linda Smith, Judy Swanson, and Connie Peacock how an ad should look.

Lynn Seipel and Trent McKinney are responsible for planning layouts for the yearbook.

Senior Editor Pam Pruitt and her assistant Donna Morris climb the stairs to the yearbook room after meeting their deadline.

Terry Nibbe and Laurie Miko are Sports Editor Jim Blackburn's assistants.

Jane Wesley, Organizations Editor, shows Pat Glynn and Ed Hinkle the final touches to be included in their section.

Photographers Dennis Pardus, Dave Robinson, and Keith Anderson are on the opposite side of the camera this time.

Peggy MacLeod is given last minute instructions from Judy Anderson, Underclass Editor.

Linda Harrelson, editor of the paper, and Dave Matsey, associate editor, smile happily as they complete the first edition of the Ho-Hi Life.

Beth Kursch and Karen Thorsen are working on features for the paper.

HO-HI LIFE

The purpose of the Ho-Hi Life is to inform the students of events in their own school. This year the paper has undergone a change. It is being printed by the Hobart Herald, on an offset press.

This is the twenty-fifth year of publication for the Ho-Hi Life. Since its founding it has covered such familiar subjects as athletic events, organizations, student activities, convocations, classroom work, and special events.

Phyllis Cole, Judy Hanson admire the paper, as Audrey Sitko and Margaret Potter type captions.

Darlene Dykes, Cheryl Weatherholt, Carol Mikolajczyk and Marilyn Lee are in charge of the society section of the Ho-Hi Life.

Business Manager
Marilyn Meilaender

Circulation Manager
Stanley Smith

Sports Editor Doug James and his assistants Carl Rose, Drummond Bell, and Barb Williams.

Debateens has a reputation of being an outstanding service organization both at school and in the community. The bundle drive and polio drive are two of the projects Debs take part in. Buzz books are put out each year. These books contain the names, addresses, phone numbers, and class of each student at Hobart High School.

The Debs had many informative programs at their Monday night meetings. Some of these were: A panel discussion by mothers and Debs on teenage problems, a cosmetic demonstration, a jewelry program by Jay Minier.

The individual clubs also planned activities for their club. A new project undertaken this year was the sending of cards to persons absent from school for a long period of time.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Girls' Athletic Association (G.A.A.) is an organization which has become outstanding at Hobart Senior High. This year was a big year for the organization in many ways.

A new method of gaining membership in the club went into effect this year. Interested persons had to obtain 30 points to become members. They could do this by attending intramurals.

On November 30 approximately 35 new members were inducted in G.A.A.

This year the organization's members purchased blue sweatshirts with the G.A.A. insignia on the front.

Their annual semi-formal was held on December 10 in the cafe. The theme for this dance was "Rhapsody in Red".

During Care Week the club sponsored a Can Can Dance. Persons attending were asked to bring a can of food for the admittance fee.

The club held a track meet and participated in the District Playday in Crown Point.

The Latin Club of Hobart High School is a part of a national organization—The Junior Classical League. Our chapter like other clubs, encourages among its members an interest in and appreciation of the civilization, language, literature, and art of ancient Greece and Rome.

The Latin Club also provides a wonderful opportunity for students to participate in extra-curricular activities. The club meets the first Thursday of each month with Mr. William Black.

In the spring the members have a chance to attend the state convention of the Junior Classical League. This year the convention will be held at Indiana University.

GERMAN CLUB

Deutsches Verein (German Society) is the newest addition to the list of active organizations. Its purpose is to promote interest in the German language, customs, and social system, and to maintain the balance between the social and intellectual aspects of the society.

During the month of December the members attended a German style Christmas party. Refreshments and entertainment were based on German traditions and customs.

In mid-winter the group held a skating party for all members.

The club also subscribed to a German newspaper and held a dinner for the members.

In 1959 the Dramatics Club was renamed the Masque and Gavel Club. Since that time this club has done much to promote interest in dramatics. It gives its members experience in all phases of play production and the speech arts. Any profits obtained through the presentations of the club are used to purchase equipment for the stage and dramatics department.

Masque and Gavel membership is open to any student with average scholastic standing and with an interest in the speech arts.

Future Teachers of America became a part of Hobart High in 1953. Since then, its main purpose has been to enable persons interested in teaching to gain experience in this field by assisting and substituting for various teachers.

This year F.T.A. sponsored dances and bake sales, and participated in Back to School Night and the selling of concessions at games. The club also attended area and state conventions. The club scholarship is given to a worthy senior who plans to enter the teaching field. Members of the club visit Hobart organizations asking for donations to this teaching scholarship.

3 NEW CLUBS ORGANIZED BY STUDENT COUNCIL

Our Student Council was first started in 1927. This organization functioned again in 1928, but was not active again until 1945. The 1945 council sponsored a "Lock your lockers," campaign. In 1952 the first Mayor was elected, Jim Calabro. The council under Mayor Fritz Ruchti helped plan the new high school building in 1956. In 1957 the ticket for Mayor and Clerk was split for the first time. 1958 saw the council revise the election of class officers. In 1959 Mayor Tom Gallagher supervised the revision of the council constitution and the presentation of a talent show. Dance classes were introduced in 1960 and council representatives attended the State

The council of 1961 plans the continuation of dance classes. A talent show "Yohan-aire" was presented. Representatives attended the state convention at Gary Horace Mann. Another project included this year was the annual Care Day drive.

This year the officers are Mayor Jim Marler and Clerk Marilyn Meilaender. They were elected after weeks of the most extensive campaign in the history of the elections. The council sponsors are Miss Dorothy Thompson and Mr. Marion Bailey.

Elwood D. Glueck, past District Governor of Optimist International, presents Junior Achievement medals to Jim Marler and Linda Howell during Youth Appreciation Week.

This year's Booster officers included: Beth Zimmerman, Sharon Campbell, Laurie Miko, Adrienne Immel, Pam Pruitt, and Joanne Kurth.

BOOSTER CLUB

The purpose of the Booster Club is to promote school spirit and to back the team. It also serves its members educationally by teaching them good sportsmanship and fair play.

This year the Booster Club organized a block section during basketball season. Everyone in the section had purple and white capes and purple robin hood hats. The block worked out motions for various cheers which created a very pleasing effect.

After a few practices the "H" men joined the girls to really put on a show.

The blocks big goal was to win a first place trophy at the Griffith Tourneys. Although they didn't quite make it with a lot of hard work they should make it next year.

Hi-Y officers are: Alan Topping, Don Stewart, Jim Harwood, and Jack Reichart.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y was formed three years ago as a club to take the place of the Boy's Club. Being affiliated with the Y.M.C.A. has many advantages. They can use all the facilities of the "Y" in Hobart, and the swimming pool in Gary.

The club had a trap shoot in October. Mr. Dick Miller, of the Sporting Arms Manufacturers Inc., was on hand to show members different guns and supervise the shoot.

When the "Y" gets the old telephone building the Hi-Y will work on a rifle range in the basement.

Last Christmas the club sponsored a "toys for Tots" drive, in which they collected broken toys and repaired them. They then gave these toys to the needy children in this area.

The club also has a basketball team which plays in the Gary "Y" tournament.

The club has a movie night and a speaker once a month. Some of the speakers the club has had spoke on such topics as archery, skin diving, polar bear hunting, and one speaker was a state policeman.

AUDIO-VISUAL

Audio-Visual was first organized in 1955 by Mr. Carlock who was the former Vocational Director. Mr. Carlock left in the summer of 1960 and the directorship of the student body in the name of Jon Howard. Jon held the directorship until 1960 when Richard Greishar took over the position.

Audio-Visual being a service organization does not hold regular meetings. The only time the members meet in a group is for special training in the operation of equipment.

Officers are selected on the basis of service and experience rather than by members.

The equipment used by Audio-Visual is furnished with funds from book rental and also by outside projects undertaken by the members.

Any member of the student body is eligible for membership in this club. They are required to take a test covering the use of equipment before being allowed to use it in the classroom.

The members' duties include the operation of motion picture projectors, slide projectors, and tape recorders. They also operate public address systems at convocations and athletic events.

Jon Howard, Arlin Guess, Dick Greishar, Alston Lundgren Audio Visual Club Officers are hard workers with a skillful hand.

Along with the officers are the members of the Audio Visual Club. Conveniently arranged around the projector and screen.

F. H. A.

Dian Hutfilz, Pam Fritz, Kay Swim, Peg Missal, Susan Janssen, Linda Smith, Judy Presley, display F.H.A. projects made for orphanages.

The purpose of Future Homemakers of America is to interest girls in the various phases of home economics. Members realize the importance of furthering their future goals as wives and mothers.

This year the girls worked together making toys, pillows and interesting apparel, which they distributed to children in orphanages at Christmas. Any girl who has one semester in home economics or is currently enrolled in a home economics class is eligible to become a member.

What's the results? Margeret Bauer, Eileen Kaiser, Carol Fitzgerald, Elaine Adams, Kaye Owen, Kay Swim, Kathy Ferri all take part in Home Economics projects.

Working busily at their work are Dottie Goulden, Linda Smith, Pat Collins, Sandy Smith, and Susan Jansen.

Members of the Librarian Club take a moment from their meeting to listen to Mrs. Bailey speak.

SERVICE AND THE GROWTH OF KNOWLEDGE

Members of Librarians Club take an active part in running the library. The girls duties enable them to learn library techniques of filing, marking books and other tasks to be done in the library. The girls also learn to associate with people and help them. Members arrange the book displays in the show case.

Membership is open to any girl who is interested in working in the library, learning about library work, and assisting Mrs. Bailey.

Librarians' Club officers: Betty Carlisle, Sharon Anderson, Pat Kemp and Janie Eaton.

Art club members: Ron Will, Floyd Hardy, Leon Will, Judy Presley, Beverly Lockwood, Linda Pendleton, Lynn Seipel, Linda Smith, Judy Anderson, Peg Tucker, and Floyd Rogers.

ART CLUB CHOOSES PROJECTS

Art Club members gain a knowledge of art, its creators and actual experience by participating with civic organizations through their commercial needs.

This year members were able to pick their own projects. Some of these projects included oil painting, and sculpturing.

Art club officers: Judy Anderson, Marcia Banister, Lynn Seipel, and Peggy Tucker.

FUTURE SCIENTISTS PLAN PROJECTS

By-Phy-Chem, commonly termed the Science Club, meet every first and third Thursdays of each month. Meeting activities include films and slides of scientific interest, but because of the brevity of its noontime meetings does not show many lengthy movies.

Each year the Science Club takes two field trips. These trips are usually to a museum or other scientific projects or industry.

The Science Club encourages its members to participate in the annual science fair which is held each spring in Hammond. Participation in the Science Fair requires a project which is to be displayed and explained by the participant on the day of the fair. Prizes are awarded in the age groups on the basis of originality, amount and quality of the work done, and also on the amount of research it entailed. By-Phy-Chem hopes, that if there are enough Hobart entries, to have a local science fair.

Science Club is sponsored by Mr. Senderak who has a great interest in science and enjoys the opportunity to lead a club that is trying to further its interest in that field.

Membership in the Science Club is open to any student who has had one or more years of science.

Jon Howard, Linda Prusiecki, JoAnne Schuemann, and Dick Greischer, the clubs officers, appear to be engrossed with studying a new scientific instrument.

THROUGH CONCENTRATED EFFORT

Big band! Big sound! Big name! This is what Mr. Webb is thinking as he conducts one of the many rehearsals which has brought this group thus far.

Thirty years of first division ratings, determination, versatility — these characteristics could only mean one thing — Hobart High School's Concert Band. Band people throughout the world recognize this name as one of the finest high school bands ever. This year alone, thirty-five ensembles and twenty-three soloists entered the district and state contests.

The Band Mothers Organization, founded by Dr. Revelli is believed to be the first organization of its kind in the country. The fame of these band mothers is second only to that of the band itself. Their job is to furnish band uniforms, instruments, and transportation facilities.

SUCCESS AGAIN MAINTAINED

Concerts for 1960-'61 included the Annual Pops Concert in December. Featured on the program were CARL CARLISLE, SAXOPHONE; and the DIXIELAND BAND playing DIXIELAND JAMBOREE. Among other numbers played were BOLERO EXPANOLE, LOHENGRIN, and FREELANCE. The Christmas Vespers with the Junior Band on A Cappella Choir included these numbers; BY THE LIGHT OF THE POLAR STAR, AVA MARIA, CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL, and SUE ROBINSON, CLAIRNET SOLOIST. Former band member DR. KENNETH SNAPP was guest conductor on the Anniversary Concert in March.

The year's tour schedule found Ball State Teachers College slated as the focal point.

With the conclusion of the May Spring Concert, another year was concluded.

The band hayride, Christmas party, selling candy, and game concessions are the activities which have to be planned each year by the band officers. L. to R.— Dave Thompson, efficiency manager; Mark Pflughoeft, treasurer; Susan Taylor, president; Doug Davis, vice-president, and Kathy Nagy, secretary.

Basin Street, New Orleans, the center of the jazz world, was formed by the band and was featured during the show "Dixieland Beat". The show, featuring the "Dixieland Playboys" was full of "toe-tappin' music".

NEW GOLD PLUMES AND ASCOTS

And now for a stroll along this well known street in New Orleans; of course you'll need the proper attire, so "Hand Me Down My Walkin' Cane". The band did just that by forming a top hat and cane.

To complete our tour of Basin Street, let's stop in at one of the famous night spots where the wail of the trumpet tells us that we're "Deep In The Heart of Dixie".

Mike Pillar, head drum major, learned to master the whistle and baton in order to lead the band through intricate drills and maneuvers.

Hobart's Marching "80" was the half-time highlight of the home football games. Before each entertaining show the Double H was formed as students responded with the school song.

ADD SPARKLE

"Let's Vote", the theme of the last football show, aroused a lot of interest as VOTE and U. S. A. was formed.

Through the efforts of Carl Carlisle, assistant drum major, the Pre-game ceremonies took on a snappy look in '60.

Round and round go the hearty supports of the annual band cakewalk. Two hundred dollars was raised this year to pay expenses.

WITH THE DOWNBEAT COMES--

"Watch it boys, one of those shoes may be Mr. Webb's!"

Taffy-apples and cocoa were served as refreshments at the Band's annual hayride.

In the Dixieland Band are Darryl Reiger, Doug Davis, Dwayne Hallman, Carl Carlisle, Brian Jones, and Arlin Guess. Carl is the director.

HOT DIXIELAND OR THE SCHOOL SONG

This is the first year for the Dixieland Playboys, the newly organized Dixieland band. The boys played for Parker and Lodge last fall in the Republican convention. They rode in Republican parades, also. The group played at the Fall Pop Concert and at the Football Show. The bands director is Carl Carlisle.

The pepband is headed by Mike Newman. It plays at all the games and at the pep sessions.

The pep band was at all the games to boost the team. Mike Newman is the head of it.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR PLANS SPRING TOUR

Choir officers this year are: Sharon Ramsey, Martha McMurtry, Terry Krischano, Don Partlow, Arlette Thompson, Bonnie Kittredge, Janet Anderson, and Donna Erwin.

The Thanksgiving convocation was the first performance given by the choir this year. Next was the Christmas Concert presented in the Cafetorium and a Christmas Vespers held in the Gymnasium. On the Friday preceding Christmas recess the choir caroled for the student body of the High school and Jr. High school.

In March a Music Festival was held in Merrillville. Six area schools participated in this joint presentation.

The big money making project for the choir this year was the sale of Christmas candy. The profits were used to finance a spring tour.

The A Cappella Choir is directed by Mr. Robert Benson. Students interested in the choir are required to audition for the director and student officers in the spring of each year.

The members of the Boy's Quartet are: Jim Harwood, Dick Ford, Darrell Teague, and Terry Krischano.

WORK REWARDED BY NEW ROBES

The Treble Choir is an all girls voice organization composed of 1st sopranos, 2nd sopranos, and altos. The choir was organized in order to provide entertainment at high school, as well as to give outside performances.

The choir co-operated with the dramatic class to put on a one act Christmas play "Why the Chimes Rang" for the entire student body. They also participated in three religious convocations and sang at the Spring Concert held in May.

INTER-CLUB COUNCIL CO-ORDINATES ALL CLUB ACTIVITIES

Linda Prusiecki—President

This year a new organization was formed at Hobart High. The idea of a school Inter-club Council was officially organized this fall.

The Inter-club Council was organized in order to co-ordinate the activities of all the clubs within the school. The first project carried out by the Inter-club Council was the collecting of donations from the various clubs and classes. These donations were given, in turn, to the city Inter-club Council and helped to pay for a Christmas scene displayed on third street.

---The Participants

As enrollment and curriculum increase so do the activities. New traditions begin; old ones continue as the school spirit swells. Can you picture
Hobart without its never to be forgotten Purple and Gold campaigns or its semis and Prom. As you go through school you should engage in some social activity to appreciate the work involved and enjoy the reward of true accomplishment.
All the ideas and theme variations of our dances, politics and campaigning have been carried out by our students who because of their participation have better prepared themselves for life.

Point Of View

"Vote Purple" is what the sign says. And that's just what Fae Jester and Jim High the Purple Party Candidates did.

GOLD PARTY BREAKS

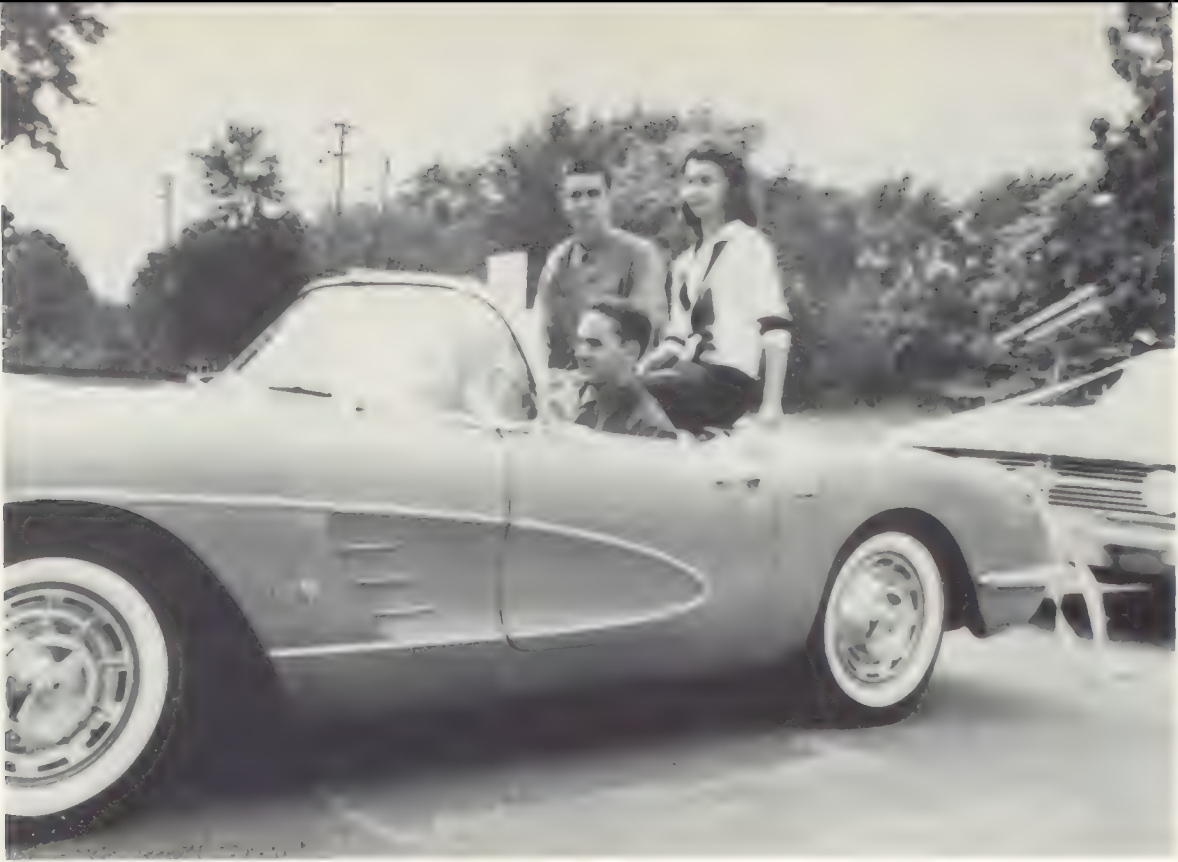

Marilyn and Jim can finally relax after the results of the election turns out a victory for the Gold Party.

The presidential election was not the only political upset as the Gold Party, led by Jim Marler and Marilyn Meilaender, pulled to its first victory in four years.

It was not all work and no play since both parties had their beach party on the same day. The whitewashing parties were also on the same day. There was a mad scramble to get the best places as both groups arrived in front of the school at the same time.

The week of strenuous campaigning with posters, banners, and whitewash proved effective when Miss Thompson announced that 80% of the student body voted. It was noted that this was higher than the national average.

Jim Marler and Marilyn Meilander, Gold Party candidates give a smile as they embark on the traditional campaign parade through town.

TRADITION IN '60-'61

Looks like the "Lineup" as these cars displaying their gold and purple signs prepare for the annual parade through town.

"Now who does this look like?" wonders Donna Erwin as she prepares another balloon for the Purple Party Campaign.

Here it comes! The traditional snake dance, led by the class floats

"We're out for victory" yell the cheerleaders as the team breaks through the Victory Football.

Thursday climaxed weeks of work by the classes when their floats were judged in front of the high school.

That night students assembled for the pep rally at Brickie Bowl. The rally was sparked by a bonfire followed with talks given by the co-captains Dave Mueller and Rudy Kuechenburg. Cheerleaders ended the evening by singing our school song.

A SPARKLE IGNITED BY HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

We'll do it again! Is the pass word for the seniors who are working busily for their third straight win. On the float—Pat Van Loon, Sheryl Nelson, Susan Hunsicker.

generates enthusiasm for the homecoming game.

Before the game the float winners were announced. The seniors with Pitch 'Em were first, the juniors with Argyles will Sock 'Em were second, and the sophomores Dunk those Devils came in third. At half time the band did several formations including the magic wand. Kaye Sillery danced with a sparkler in her hand. They then formed the traditional crown where the queen candidates and their escorts were led to the tune of Fascination. Sharon Ramsey was crowned by Ron Zuk, senior class president, with a red rose bud crown as the 1960 Football Homecoming queen. Their escorts John Jamison, Dick Bliss, Bob Smith, and Jim Marler led them off the field.

After being presented with a football autographed by the team, Sharon and co-captain Rudy Kuechenberg started the dancing.

After being crowned King and Queen, Dave Mueller and Barbara Davis leave the stage to join the others for dancing.

It's easy to see that this was a Ladies' choice. The boys are dancing!

Memories

Memories was the theme chosen by the seniors for their last class party. The decorations were in keeping with the theme since they were from past class parties and activities. Records from the seventh grade and up were played and memories were recalled by Pam Pruitt over the P.A. system.

"We're over here," seems to be what these girls are saying as they patiently wait for the mass migration of the boys.

Bonnie Kittredge and Dick Boyd reigned over Autumn Leaves, Junior Class Party. Their court consisted of:

AUTUMN LEAVES SEASON JUNIORS

A yellow harvest moon, and corn shocks surrounded by bright orange pumpkins, gave the perfect hues for "Autumn Leaves." Colorful leaves decorating the walls carried out the theme and harmonized with the King and Queen's crowns. The crowns made of small leaves bordered by silver glitter, were worn proudly by the King and Queen, Bonnie Kittredge and Dick Boyd. Besides the dancing Pat Von Loon, Vickie Wiczorek, Marcia Bannister, Jim Taylor, all Seniors, and Jim Harwood, a Junior, sang to add to the entertainment.

Juniors look on while Bonnie and Dick lead off the dancing to Autumn Leaves.

Rudy Kuechenburg tells Leon Simmons there'll be no more "Double Dating."

Oh, oh! More laughs. Charlie (Jim Wells) has just received a "Letter from Mama," which he reads to Jack Paar (Ron Zuk).

Turnabout day not only saw the girls turn chivalrous but also the weirdest combinations of plaids and polka dots, purples and reds, ever to hit Hobart High. The girls opened the doors, gave up their places in the cafeteria line, sharpened pencils, carried books, and walked the boys to class. That night there was a dance and the girls escorted their dates in a grand style.

TURNABOUT TURNS "TOPSY TURVY"

Is this really topsy-turvy, or does Tom Wilson always have the girls carrying his books? Judy Presley is the lucky one today.

Norman Kulik smiles to himself as Mary Plummer turns the water on for him between classes.

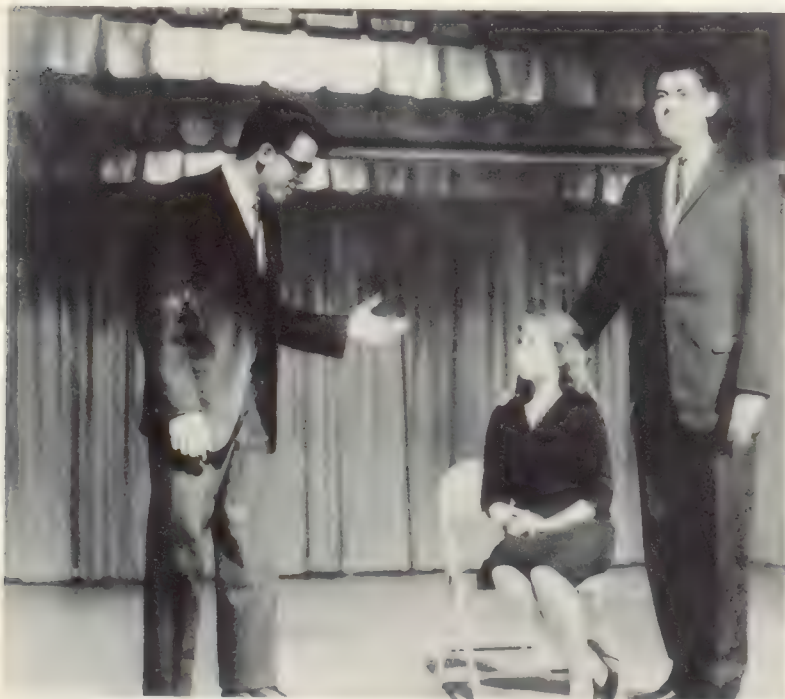

Fran Cheverton, as Karen Andrea, and Dave Sgambelluri as Larry Reagon, listen carefully to the decision of the judge, Jim Wells, in the play "The Night of January 16th."

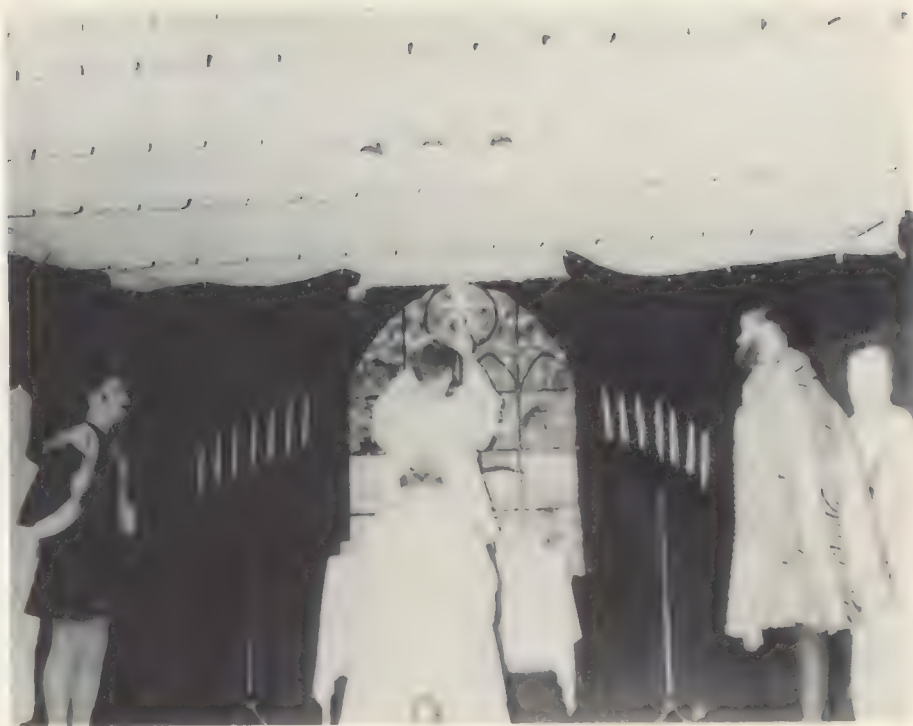

Donna Rae Morris as Judy, and Ron Zuk as Randolph, start another one of their "many" arguments, as Ron tries to explain his point, in the play "A Date With Judy."

PLAYS ADD ZEST

"Go on Mrs. Faulkner," pleads Dick Briggs as he carefully questions Kaye Sillery and Mitch Blundin in the play "The Night of January 16th."

Couples are beginning to drift in, ready to start the fun and dancing at the Debuten's semi.

Ray Crampton, a Purdue University student, presented a piano interlude at the Debuten's semi, "Hearts and Flowers", on February 4.

Tom Wilson's band provided the music for the basketball homecoming dance. The decorations consisted of gold basketballs, and purple and gold crepe paper which carried out the school colors.

Mike Harrahil and Michele Livovich enjoy the music and dancing at the Debutteen's semi.

THEY COULD HAVE DANCED ALL NIGHT!

Patsy McKenzie and Ron Day are ready in the sleigh which will carry them into a wonderful evening of "Rhapsody in Red" at the G.A.A. semi.

"Rhapsody in Red" was indeed an evening to remember. The G.A.A. put forth all effort and formed an enchanting winter wonder in red. Donna Erwin's singing was added as a special entertainment for the evening. With lights turned low and drifting music, couples wished they could have danced all night.

This year for the first time recognition was given to the students with a B or better average. Silver pins with Honor Student engraved were presented by the Honor Society officers. If these are earned for four consecutive times, they may be kept. After the pins were given Dr. Martin of Indiana University gave a speech.

CONVOS BRIGHTEN

Dwayne Carter, an Indianapolis Speedway driver, is shown with Mr. Deal, Gary Walker, Bruce Fessler, and Sergeant Dick Raiza after a talk on safe driving.

This year our convos were varied from honor to religious, educational to fun. Mr. Able presented a drum program in which six of our students participated, surprising us when they played a rumba in a few minutes of practice.

A court scene was depicted by the Booster Club when they tried the members of the basketball team. Mr. Edquist, Mr. Kurth, John Jameson, and Jim Grudzinski sang "Row, Row, Row, Your Boat" as their sentence.

The Student Council outdid itself this year when they planned the convos and everyone hopes it will do the same in the years to come.

After attending a Communism seminar for three days, Mr. Moody speaks to the school on his experiences while Jim Marler and Marilyn Meilaender look on.

STUDENT LIFE

The Treble Choir starts the Easter Convo by leading the Star Spangled Banner. They also sang "And He Never Said a Mumbling Word."

They look happy, don't they? And it's no wonder. Keith Anderson, Carol Homan, Pat Glynn, and Beth Zimmerman are serving free cokes to them. L.-R.—

One of the many privileges given to the seniors during S.A.W. is to arrive an hour late. These seniors look like they'll just make it. L.-R.—Judee O'Neal, Ben Jones, Sheryl Nelson, Mike Epperson, Ray Rodriguez, Paul Eikenbarry, Barbara Davis, Sharon Ramsey, Sharon Cook, and Virginia Strudas.

Jim Gofney and Doug Davis look on with envy as Doug Morris, Mick Pillar, Paul Sheehy, Terry Lee, Linda Prusiecki, and Jim Taylor leave Physics class early. Just one more year, boys.

SENIORS TAKE OVER CITY

Sharon Anderson is adding up the sewage bills on a full key board adding machine. She is a business major. They're certainly keeping her busy.

Many weeks of preparation went into government day in order to make it a success. Each candidate had to fill out an application stating his qualifications for the job he desired. Several new jobs were available this year in the field of clerical work and the business majors snapped them up.

The mayor, clerk-treasurer, and council visited the city council four or five times to see just how the laws are passed, and the first time, were introduced to the officials whose places they would take. They worked together for the next few meetings.

The City Council

GOVERNMENT APRIL 19th

Karen Powell affirms a dental appointment in Doctor Herrick's office. Hers was one of the newly created jobs this year.

Two weeks before government day, the council went to all the government and economics classes and asked for suggestions on what laws they would like passed. They also told what went on at the city council meetings.

On Government Day, all the officials were absent from school because of their jobs. That night Dennis Smith presided over the city council and brought Government day to a close for this year.

---The Athletes

The athletes point of view is a clear and steady one based on a competitive program. Contributing to the physical needs and sportsmanship, the boy who participates in any of Hobarts Athletic Events is certain to advance with a reputation of clean play.

The athlete gives of himself down to the very core of energy, possess determination, and performs for the public, showing compatibility among his teammates. It can truly be said, Hobart has a keen view of sports.

BRICKIE HARRIERS CAPTURE SECOND

Hobart captured its second state high school cross country championship in four years when the 1960 harriers took the title crown on the South Grove Country Club two-mile course in Indianapolis on Saturday, November 6.

The championship was the second for Coach Frank Kurth's team who also won in 1957 to climax an undefeated season.

Hobart paced the field of 22 schools and 149 individual entries with a low total of 89 points. New Haven placed second with 145, Cathedral's Indianapolis city champs third with 152, Pendleton fourth 162 and Southport Indianapolis section champs fifth with 154.

The championship five-some for Hobart which placed the Brickies in the title room were senior Jim Marler (4th), senior Bob Smith (14th), sophomore Bernie Claxton (19th), Senior John McDowell (21st) and sophomore Eddie Neill (31st).

To qualify for the state championship run, the Brickies put forth one of their greatest sectional triumphs to win with a low 35 points. The victory gave Hobart its eighth sectional championship in 14-years running.

Cold and windy at the state meet, the Brickies wore black full length nylon leotards for leg warmth, a state meet first for cold weather cross country gear.

The state championship summed up by Coach Frank Kurth: "A tremendous desire and will-to-win made us a great team . . . a state champion."

The Hobart Brickies loosing but two games. Throughout the playing season can really boast success, playing one of the toughest schedules in the history of Hobart football. Such teams as Michigan City's Red Devils, East Chicago Roosevelt's Rough Riders and the Panthers of Gary Roosevelt. These teams have been and will be beaten again.

Racking up a total of 294 points the Brickie squad not only achieved a high in total points but held six opposing teams scoreless and letting only 50 points go under their defense. An achievement of success? Yes, you might say that as this team held true to the fact of Hobarts' football superiority.

With the aid of fullback Jim Lake,, Dave (Tump) Mueller charges through a field of sprawling opponents toward the uprights to only one of his thrilling touchdown runs.

Jon Eickstead (11) accepts a lateral from Bob Graham (45) to make a 60 yard touchdown run during the Gary Emerson game, only one climax of the 60-season.

Coach Russ Deal delivers locker-room pep talk to co-captains Rudy Kuechenberg and Dave Mueller. "It's not the dog thats in the fight but the fight thats in the dog." The favorite motto of Russ Deal.

Dave Beres and Bob Smith control the backboards while opponent stands looking on. But wait! who's this mystery player? Maybe he's got control.

Everything that goes up must come down, lets hope it came down in the hands of the waiting Brickies.

THEY WERE ON

The Hobart Brickies having speed in John Jamison, Rick Stevens, Dave Mueller, the shooting eyes of Bob Smith, Dick Bliss, and Jim Chandler the height and rebounding of Dave Beres, Jim Grudzinski, and Bill Lister, and the dependability and reliability of Jim Goffiney and Bob Johnson, the 60-61 basketball squad was well rounded and very well co-ordinated. It lacked ability in experience but produced one of the most thrilling and well played basketball season in recent years. Did these boys achieve their goal? Yes, they provided Hobarts basketball fans with excitement beyond compare.

To climax the season the Brickies played a bold but loosing battle in a sudden death overtime game with Gary Lew Wallace. The first such game played in the Gary sectionals in 11 years.

Eeeeeeah! yells Frank Banaski as Joe Angotti shoots for the point.

You have to be rough and tough to survive on the wrestling mats as these intramural boys can vouch, but its all part of making a well rounded boy.

INTRAMURALS.. BUILDER OF SPORTSMANSHIP

Bernie Claxton and Jim Boatright fight it out as Earl Williams smiles for the camera.

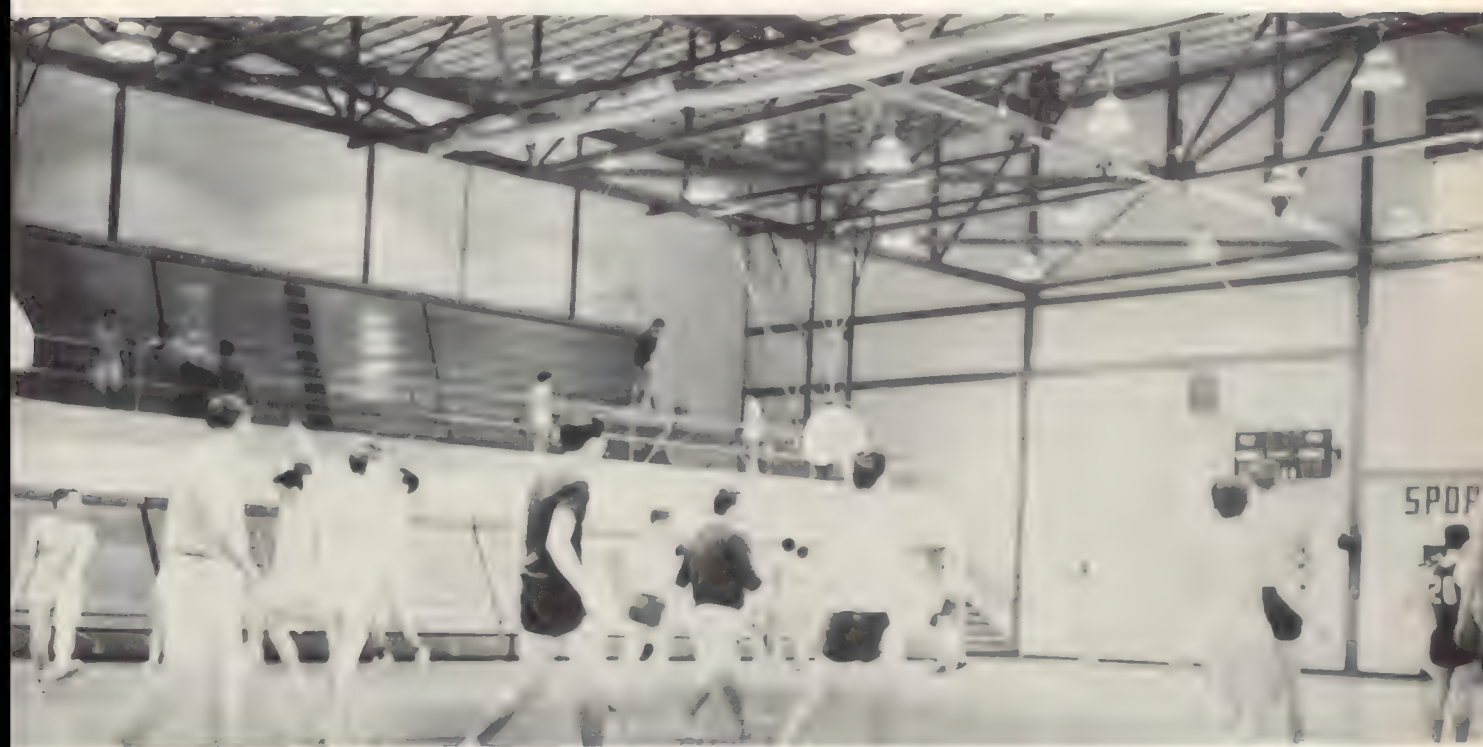

Intramurals are for boys who are not participating in varsity competition at the present time. These boys choose the sport they want to play in. This way they get a varied sports activity.

Mr. Floyd Davis, sponsor and advisor, oversees all meetings and assists in coaching. Boys intramurals are organized with the intent of developing the athletic interest and abilities of every individual.

The most outstanding characteristics being, sportsmanship. For boys participating learn to get along with and co-operate with others. This makes Intramurals fulfill their cause of being.

Confussion under the backboards, this is what you'll find at Tuesday night Intramurals. These boys will all have a chance to participate in building sportsmanship.

Huzz Buzz of action on the floor. You might find at any weekly Intramurals meeting its all in the development of a better athlete.

The interest of the varsity cheerleaders, Beth Gallagher, Pam Pruitt, Linda Howell, Betsy Murray and Sharon Campbell centers around the basketball during the latter half of the school year.

CHEERLEADERS BOOST TEAM ON VICTORY

Even cheerleaders need substitutes! Bonnie Kittredge, Cheryl Winston and Vicki Kozyra constitute this year's subs.

The reserve cheerleaders; Barb Louis, Donna Glad, Becky Nelson, Diana Glad and Joan Wesley, prove to the student body that it's easy to do the splits.

FINISH LINES

The 1961 track schedule called for the Hobart Brickies to put forth their best efforts, and brought out the ability of the Brickies to win. Coach Kurths' boys, sparked by senior lettermen, John McDowell, Jim Marler, Dave Beres, Ron Layer, Floyd Rogers, and Dave Thompson. Loyally supported by underclassmen, such as Jim Grudzinski, Bruce Allen, Mark Pflughoeft, Sam Kozyra, John Eikstead, and Key Managers, Paul Eickenbury, and Mike Gutzler.

These thinclads, and many like them deserve the rewards and thanks for providing one of the typical successful Brickie track squad.

Bernie Claxton, sophomore, leads field as he nears the finish line in only one of his record breaking runs.

Dave Beres clears this high jump with the greatest of ease which will come in handy at track meet time.

CINDERS SAW

LOADS OF, PRACTICE, SWEAT, SUCCESS

Miss or line drive? Excitement over the plate while next batter warms up.

Senior pitching nucleus Dave Mueller cuts loose with a pitch called strike.

Bob Grahm waits impatiently as Tom Wilson takes 'advantage of his batting powers and heads for first.

Game meditation . . . Coach Russ Deal paces back and forth in front of the dug-out, awaiting the game to start. Coach Deal proves to be a winning coach in baseball as well as football.

Mike Roque, Senior catcher, is up and ready to put out the man coming home as offender runs for first.

THATS US

The faithful and untiring pitching machine provides the Brickie batbusters with many loyal pitches to swat at.

-----The Students

With the students virtually making each event live, it is through your point of view that we base our ideas. While in high school each student makes an impression of one type or another.

He may either contribute to or take away from his class. The sophomores attitude when he first enters high school will change as he progresses and learns the way he must act.

The Juniors with a year of studies behind them have changed their view of school from carefreeness to that of hard work and studies.

Some Seniors go directly into a useful occupation while many will attend college to further their knowledge.

"A picture is worth more than ten thousand words"

The advertising section of your 1961 Memories is dedicated to the merchants of Hobart and Gary. Because of their support and interest, we have been able to produce a record of the many events that have taken place this year.

We would like to thank our supporters for their kind patronage and help. In the years to come, as we look back on our high school days, we will not forget that they made this edition of Memories possible.

what's their future

The young people you see in these pictures are all on their way to successful careers in one of America's basic industries . . . steel. They decided (as we hope you will decide) to let Inland Steel Company help them plan their future.

Some are gaining knowledge and experience in special trades to become journeyman machinists, carpenters or electricians . . . some are concentrating on certain phases of steelmaking by working in the open hearth shops, the cold rolling mills or the galvanizing lines. Still others are working in laboratories building a sound foundation for a future in steel research.

Inland offers the high school graduate an excellent opportunity to further his education. Employees may participate in a variety of on-the-job training programs, or they can continue their formal education by registering for evening courses offered by local Purdue and Indiana University Extension Centers.

Plan now to investigate the unlimited opportunities for you in steel . . . with the midwest's own steel company . . . INLAND STEEL.
